Say something like: "Today, my friend, _____, is going to share something that is very important to them. Please listen respectfully as it takes a lot of courage to speak in front of others. You all were given a "student response card" that looks like this (hold up a sample card) when you came in. Hold on to it and we will explain what it is for later."

Gospel Discussion

“Honor Restored”

In the beginning God created a good world and gave humans great dignity. The world reflected God's love and greatness.

Genesis 1:1

“In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.”

Genesis 1:27

“So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.”

Genesis 1:31a

“And God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good.” Under God's care, people honored Him as their Father and lived in a perfect relationship with Him.

The problem - humans rebelled against the Creator, their Father. Through this, we dishonored our relationship with Him. This causes us to feel shame because our relationship is broken. This leads to guilt, fear, and regret because we are not living in the relationship of love that we were created for.

The solution - God loves humanity so much that He came to rescue us and restore our relationship with Him through His Son Jesus. Jesus lived a perfect life that shows us exactly what God is like. The humans that He created rejected, abandoned, and murdered Him. He suffered an unjust and shameful death on a cross. It was through His death that He took our guilt, fear, and shame so that our broken relationship could be restored. Jesus was raised to life by the power of God. He is seated in a place of honor and has the right to restore our relationship with God now and forever.

You have a choice - to bear your own shame and remain in a broken relationship outside of God's family. Or, you can trust Jesus to bear your shame and realize that you are accepted, loved, and forgiven because of who He is and what He has done for you.

The result - you can leave guilt, fear, and shame behind to share in the honor Jesus has been given and have a new life in God's family both now and forever.

Placing your trust in Jesus changes your story! It changes from guilt, shame, and fear to being restored, included, and honored by God.

Pray - God, you know the guilt, shame, and fear that I have in my life. I now realize that it is because of my broken relationship with you, my Creator and Father. I believe and trust in what Jesus has done for me to be restored, included, and honored in the family of God. In Jesus name, Amen.

Disciple Tip

Doing what Jesus did means loving the broken and outcasts.

FOLLOW-UP GUIDE

Following up with those who just committed their lives to Jesus or have questions is equally as important as sharing the Gospel! This guide will give you a few pointers on how to follow-up correctly.

SIX THINGS TO DO WHEN FOLLOWING UP

1. Determine how many and what kind of follow-up has been requested.

As soon as possible, read through the response cards after you have collected them and let your Coach know how many people committed their lives to Christ and how many students have questions or want someone to follow up with them.

2. Organize the response card information.

Write down on the follow-up chart the names, response, and contact info of everyone who made decisions and requested to talk with someone.

3. Make contact within 24 hours with everyone who responded to the Gospel on Engage Week.

This can be done by text message, personal conversation at school or social media, just remember to check with your parents for permission before contacting someone you do not know. The initial message should be something like this:

"Hello ____! My name is _____ and I saw that you came to First Priority club this week! We are really excited you came, and we hope you'll come back next week. I also noticed that you marked on your response card that you [prayed to begin a relationship with Christ] -or- [wanted to talk with someone about the Gospel] so I wanted to ask how I could help you. If you have questions about their responses, you can contact your Campus Coach for guidance.

4. Invite them to church! If they were invited by a friend to First Priority...

Ask that friend to invite them to youth group this week, since they are more likely to attend church with someone they know. If they plan to go to church for the first time, you can also ask your Coach to notify the Student Pastor that they will be having a new guest this week! Make sure to discard any response cards that you will not be needing for follow-up.

5. Offer a free Bible to those who prayed to receive Christ if Bibles are available through your First Priority club or church.

Make sure one is available before you offer and make sure they receive it if they ask for one.

6. Share Stories

Share any cool new salvation stories and new local youth group members with your Coach! He or she will want to celebrate with you about what God is doing through your club!
